Not illustrated. 1922 Excerpt: .Banks is what we should call the ordinary type of agricultural cooperative society, such as societies for the purchase of seeds and manures, for the selling of goods in common, dairy societies and fishing societies; but there are also a number of societies for the exploitation of forests, which are organized on a different basis and are probably peculiar to Rumania. The third and most interesting form of cooperation in Rumania is to be found in the societies for hiring land. In Rumania the land was owned largely by great proprietors, some of whom owned very large estates. It was not unusual for a proprietor to let his land to a farmer to work; that is, to a capitalist who paid him a rent for the right to work his land and who supplied all the machinery, animals, etc., necessary for the work and profit of...
