

Wide Is The Gate (Hardback)

By Upton Sinclair

FREDERICK ELLIS, United States, 2011. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Wide is the Gate, written in 1943, is the fourth of the epic eleven part classic Lanny Budd Series written by Upton Sinclair. Wide is the Gate followed the 1943 Pulitzer Prize Winning Dragon s Teeth. This book covers the period of 1934-1937 and introduces Lanny as a secret double agent fighting the Nazi s as a supporter of the resistance movement in Germany. Lanny is living primarily in England with his wife of almost five years, Irma Barnes, the 23 million dollar heiress. Irma does not share Lanny s red view of the world. Lanny s is conflicted continuously in his heart and soul for the workers and social justice. Lanny attempts to commit to Irma to behave himself and lead a normal aristocratic life. But foremost he is committed to ending Nazism, Fascism and the over throw of the democratically elected Spanish government. Irma believes she is entitled to live in the style of the aristocrats of Europe, she having inherited 23 million dollars from her late father, J. Paramount Barnes. She cares not at all for anything Lanny...
