In few countries can more exciting adventures be met with than in Mexico, and the southern and western portions of North America; in consequence of the constantly disturbed state of the country, the savage disposition of the Red Indians, and the numbers of wild animals, buffaloes, bears, wolves, panthers, jaguars, not to speak of alligators, rattlesnakes, and a few other creatures of the like nature. My old school-fellow, Dick Onslow, has just come back from those regions; and among numerous incidents by flood and field sufficient to make a timid man s hair stand on end for the rest of his days, he recounted to me the following: - After spending some time among those ill-conditioned cut-throat fellows, the Mexicans, I returned to the States.
