Lodge Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 378 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Strength of swords, honor in victory. Kellens childhood is shrouded in mystery. For the last ten years, he and his father have lived as refugees in Salvation, a land beyond the Western Wilderness of New Caporezzo. After his ascension into the warrior ranks, he and his companions vow to return to the land of their birth, in order to change their destiny and reclaim the past. So begins their quest to find redemption in the land some of them were sworn to protect. Col and Vee live in Cenkin, the capital city of the majestic land of New Caporezzo. Their mother, who is queen of New Caporezzo, is torn by terrible decisions she made years ago. Her beauty is only equaled in intensity by the sorrow in her heart. Their stepfather and king, Guan, governs the country as a tyrant, wielding power like an iron fist. Those who stand against him are crushed by his loyal soldiers. Once Vee demonstrates her equality as a warrior, she is accepted into the legendary Tunide to ride beside her brother. Together, they embark on a mission that will forever change their destiny. As Kellen, Col, and Vee struggle with the knowledge of their dark pasts, they set events in motion that will test their loyalties, friendships, and ultimately reveal the Edge of Betrayal. Extended Description: Edge of Betrayal: The New Caporezzo Chronicles is an exciting, young adult novel sure to appeal to young and old alike. In this book by first-time novelist L. J. Noker, you'll find a heartwarming and thrilling tale about families separated by a terrible event. Edge of Betrayal is intentionally absent wizards, werewolves, and vampires; it is a story about people dealing with the real emotions of...
