Reviews

This ebook will never be effortless to get started on studying but extremely fun to read through. It is actually written in easy phrases and never difficult to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Excerpt: . . . ppreciate it. Mr. Marcus. Yes, director of Palestinian Media Watch. Senator Specter. And do you have in your possession certain videos Mr. Marcus. Yes. Senator Specter. And where were the videos obtained Mr. Marcus. Everything that youll see was filmed in Palestinian Authority television. This is PBC, Palestine Broadcast Company, that is owned and operated by the Palestinian Authority. Senator Specter. All right, would you please show those to the subcommittee Video Presentation Ask for death is the message the Palestinian Authority has been conveying to its children since the start of violence in October 2000. In July 2002, two articulate 11-year-old girls were interviewed in a studio of official Palestinian television. What has caused this compelling desire for death among these children The Palestinian Authority has been making a supreme effort to convince their own children that there is no greater achievement than to die for Allah in battle, known as Shahada. This indoctrination film clip is designed to offset a childs natural fear of death. It portrays Shahada as both heroic and tranquil, and was broadcast repeatedly over the last 2 years. The films hero, a nice-looking school boy, leaves his father a farewell letter explaining his choice to carry out Shahada. This film was broadcast on official Palestinian television. Most of the scenes portray blood and death. The film ends with this screen displaying, in Arabic and in English, Ask for death. The life will be given to you. In another film clip, I am the shahid, my mother, mothers are urged to be joyous over the Shahada death of their own children. The Palestinian Authoritys Ministry...
