First Friday: How Virginity Almost Killed Me (Hardback)

By Tory Hartmann

Sand Hill Review Press, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Review: A comic examination of a large Irish family's struggle to maintain their old-fashioned religious and cultural traditions in modern-day California. With her lingering stutter and utter lack of fashion sense, everyone expects 28-year-old Agnes Anne O Neil to remain under her parents roof forever. But she has other plans: after years of inertia, she's decided to obtain her real estate license so that she can get out of the back office at her father's real estate firm. She decides to apply her increased earnings toward getting cosmetic surgery on her nose and chin. She also declares that, going forward, she'd prefer to be called Anne. In short order, the formerly timid Anne bleaches her hair blonde, makes two successful real estate sales, and meets a new guy. Meanwhile, her parents grow apoplectic because she's no longer the rigid Irish Catholic isolationist that they thought she was. They call her cosmetic surgery self-mutilation, and they can't stand that she has a Jewish boyfriend, Sheldon Goldberg; they also lament that Anne isn't cultivating a life more...
