But in private, none of that mattered. At the tender age of six, Penelope Watkins fell for her best friend's brother, Evan Donovan, future hunk. The notorious bad boy was in a depression no one could penetrate, except maybe the one woman who still knew him best and still wanted him most Penelope is the last person Evan wants to witness the wreck he's become. So when she shows up at his door he's less than welcoming even though the sight of her brings back the same old rush of desire. As a teenager, the emotions overwhelmed him.
