

Angel s Puppies (Hardback)

By Judith Weinshall Liberman

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2014. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .About the Book ANGEL S PUPPIES tells the story of a young girl, Lisa, who is quite lonely because her parents are away on a long trip, leaving her in the care of a housekeeper, Bertha. Lisa s main companion is Angel, a black mutt. Bertha resents the fact that, in addition to having to do the household chores, she also has to take care of a dog. Bertha becomes especially angry when Angel becomes pregnant and gives birth to three puppies. Bertha wants Lisa to get rid of the puppies, and she is not satisfied until Lisa promises to give the puppies away as soon as they are old enough. When the time comes, Lisa gives the puppies as a gift to solders at a nearby army camp, where she and Angel can visit them frequently. The story is a fictionalized version of an experience the author underwent while growing up in Israel (then called Palestine) during World War II. About the Author Born in Israel (then called Palestine), Judith Weinshall Liberman came to the United States in...
