Evolved Publishing, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. 2nd ed.. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Redemption. This was the first word that occurred to me with the last sentence of the book. Redemption for what we ve done; redemption from what we ve suffered. .a touching story of two people struggling to find their place in life and their true self, two souls which have suffered more than enough, two human beings who have discovered that we are the loneliest in our darkest hours. Tsvetalina Baykusheva PUBLISHER S NOTE: Previously released in 2013 as The Lone Wolf. [Literary, Women s Fiction, Contemporary] When her husband David s infidelities are revealed, shattering the perfect life Kasey Sanford thought they d created together, it s a wake-up call that she s lost herself along the way. She demands that David move with her to a new town, to a fresh start for their life together. Kasey loves the freedom of reinventing herself, including her new friendship with police officer and soldier Andrew Adams. Andrew is handsome and charming, and his interest in Kasey awakens feelings she d rather have for her husband, who pushes her further away with...
