Much Ado About Lu The man she desires is the one she hates. Lucinda Lu Danvers is a drama teacher at Asheville College who suffers no theatrics. After surviving the trauma of an unexpected pregnancy during WWII and pushing through to become a respected member of the staff at Asheville, Lu has proved to everyone she s the woman for the English tenure position. When she meets a handsome stranger outside the administration building, sparks fly- but he s not here for romance. He s here to take her position. He s falling for the woman whose job he stole. After scandalous rumors ruined his reputation, Max Fischer abandoned his career as a Hollywood screenwriter to teach college instead. Instantly, he finds himself attracted to- and despised by-Asheville s drama teacher, a woman he can t keep his eyes off of. Despite being unable to tolerate one another, Lu and Max are forced to work together on the fall production of Much Ado About Nothing. though there s definitely something between them. Resentment only fires the flames of passion even higher,...
