Have you ever planned for a trip? You have to think about all sorts of things. Some have more to do in order to plan for a trip than others, but in my house planning includes a number of things. For me I have to plan out my itinerary so I know where I am going and what I am doing when I get there. I have to plan for lodging, medicine, make sure I pack enough clothes, think about what I might need and plan for what might happen like falling in the mud, or ripping my pants. I have to plan for how much it will cost me for food, for lodging, for gas, spending cash, and extras just in case of emergency. I have to make sure the car has a check-up. In accordance with the weather I may need to plan for breaking down and so I may pack water, extra insulation, and I make a list of the emergency contact numbers I may have to use. At work I have to get someone...
