By M Saylor Billings

Billibatt Productions, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. M. Saylor Billings presents a humorous and exciting spin into vigilante justice and the creative characters of Ohlone Island. a fine read, not to be overlooked. - MIDWEST BOOK REVIEW Nestled in the heart of the San Francisco Bay, Ohlone Island has a little something for everyone: beaches, bake shops, espionage, tennis courts, fraud, book clubs, murder. Newcomer Lorna Tollison thought she had left behind the drama and aggravation of New York City. Little did she know that rescuing a local history museum would turn over one of the dirtiest rocks in town. When the police refuse to take her seriously, it is up to Lorna and her best friend, Annie, to get to the bottom of this mystery. The first book in the six part series, Saint Charles Street begins spinning a web of intrigue around the people of Ohlone Island. Previously released as an audio podcast serial, The O Line Mysteries, the book series creates a thrilling atmosphere, delving deeper into the hidden histories of the main characters and the conspiracy surrounding the island.
