Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A navy trauma surgeon serving with the marines in Afghanistan, Jeffrey Thomas has been exposed to the horrors of war and a culture far different than his own. Here in this distant land, he s is tasked with an even more dangerous mission. Partnering with an American drug expert, he must live in disguise among the local people and hope to end the local heroin trade-a job that puts him in direct conflict with the Taliban. Just when it seems things couldn t get worse, he finds his new partner is a long-lost girlfriend from college days. Jeff finds Caroline as beautiful and brilliant as before and it isn t long before the former couple begin to rediscover their past feelings for each other as they live and work within a local Afghan family. When their mission comes to a sudden end, Jeff returns home depressed and in need of serious soul searching. After a chance meeting with an old Frenchman, he s invited to live and work at a Carmel Valley vineyard, where he rediscovers his love for the land. Here he learns to create a world-class wine-and realizes again the wonder and redemptive power of love. I loved this story. It s part thriller, part love story, part psychological roller-coaster . - Robert Lindsey, Edgar award winning author of The Falcon and the Snowman.
