I can see some of those with vehicles, ahead of that crowd I saw with the other specimen; they are driving with all speed, apparently to return againf I see some covered vehicles among them, but they look strange. Pompeii was a city in Italy, situated on the river Sarnus, near the Bay of Naples, and, unfortunately for its inhabitants, within a short distance of Vesuvius. All the neighboring heights were crowned with villas, and the loveliness of the whole region, favored by nature and adorned by art, was unsurpassed. In A. D. 63, an earthquake threw down part of the city. From time to time, smaller shocks occurred, un til, on the 23d of August, A. D. 79, Vesuvius awoke from the slumber of ages, and poured out rocks, ashes and dust, that buried the city and surrounding country. The contrast...
