It is unquestionably one of the most difficult passages in all the Bible, and depends for its solution, as I apprehend, on some popular views common at the time when Peter wrote his epistle, but which are not known tons. One thing, however, is plain: Can we build our hopes for eternity on such a doubtful passage as this? Does not the passage itself show, if it be interpreted as affirming the preaching of Christ to the spirits while in prison, that a distinction was made by him. For why did He preach only to Antediluvians? This last question presents, indeed, a difficulty which is well nigh fatal to such an exegesis; for why should all the heathen world,...
