Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Simon Peter was a disciple of Jesus. He walked with, talked to, and learned from Jesus for three years. He was even in Jesus inner INNER circle of a few with a front row view of incredible miracles. After Jesus resurrection and the gift of the Holy Spirit, Peter became a powerful leader in the early church. You might think Peter was gifted with amazing leadership skills, perfect temperament, highly trained and educated, pristine social skills and awareness, impeccable timing for knowing when to listen and when to speak. Maybe you are thinking you have nothing in common with Peter. Do you often feel unqualified? Did you find it not hard to follow Jesus, but yet HARD to follow Jesus? Are you often all in.ready to jump into action, many times prematurely? Do you like to take matters in your own hands? Do you find your intentions are often so much better than your actions? Do you often act before you should? Do you sometimes just miss the point? Do you put your foot in your mouth way more than you should? But do you also love deeply and you want so badly to be doing this life you have been given right? If you can relate, you may be more like Peter than you think. This is the Simon Peter we read about in the Bible. Unqualified on his own, spontaneous, just fix it personality, saying all the wrong things at times. And these are the characteristics I see in myself so often. God is ready to use us, quirky personality and all. He is ready to transform our messy weakness into His strength to do mighty things for His kingdom....
