Recent reports of departments of the State government which deal with social matters indicate that the Commonwealth is not gaining (except as to physical health) in the battle against those classes which are burdensome to society. Our hospitals for the insane are as good as any in the country, but mental disease is not decreasing in Virginia. Our methods of dealing with criminals, paupers and other anti-social groups have not resulted in the reduction of their numbers; the increase of anti-social classes appears to keep pace with the growth of...
