Reviews: Great, fun novel for kids who like to lay in bed at night and read. and I couldn t put the thing down, read it straight through and I m 73. A mysterious young man turns up at a little fishing village called Crab Creek asking for a ride out to an even more mysterious Island that no one dares go hear. Because of its appearance on a nautical map, it was known as Skull Island, or was there another reason for the name? Lights in the old Sutton mansion could be seen going on and...
