MORE PSYCHOLOGY IN PLAIN ENGLISH (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Rebecca Richards (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Is repressed memory as common as Freud thought, and is Freud still important today? What mistakes do humans routinely make in judging how likely events are to occur? Why do we find patterns in events even when they are unrelated? How do genetics make some people more prone to drug addiction, sensation seeking, or being highly sociable? Just how do you teach old dogs new tricks, and how does this same mechanism end up causing superstitious behavior? How are sexual identity, sexual orientation, and sex roles developed, and what did we learn about that process from the case of the opposite sex identical twins? How much control do we have over our happiness, and how can we make our lives happier? More Psychology in Plain English is the companion volume to Psychology in Plain English. Through anecdotes, personal examples, wicked humor, and explanations honed through more than 30 years and more than 700 psychology classes, Dr. Richards covers some of his most popular classroom topics.
