Whitley Press, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Online trading promises unlimited opportunities and the potential to get rich while sitting behind your desk or on your laptop on a sunny beach somewhere in the Caribbean. Sounds too good to be true? Well, it mostly is too good to be true because lurking behind that potential is a real danger of catastrophic loss. The brokers and trading platforms are legally required to warn you - but they often do so in small text or inaudible mumblings at the end of television commercials such that you either dismiss the warnings as unimportant or you miss them altogether. This little guide book tells you the truth about these risks - from a trader who experienced loss first hand. In addition, this small book offers a wealth of information about trading - some secrets of the game, how it is rigged, and tips on how you can also play it without risking heavy losses Simple strategies that will save you thousands Truths that your broker and the big banks do not want you to know Learn how the system is rigged and how you can also play the game.
