Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . We must always be wary of who we get married to. Divorce is not easy. The material cost is the simple part. The emotional toll for those involved including any children is huge. What drives a once madly in love couple to believe their only option for the future is to go their separate ways? The answer may shock you. The devil is in the detail. When you take your vows on the wedding day, how do you know of any hidden agenda on the part of the other person? How do you know that the smiling face staring back at you with love and admiration will not be the monster in a few years to come? What do you do then? This book answers these questions and more in very practical ways. No one has to die for love. No one has to kill in the name of love. Hate is not the opposite of love. Love should have no past tense. It is forever. An understanding of this means you live your life free of any guilt or threat. People in love should never have to fall out of love. In the real life, what causes the strain in relationships are quite mundane things like financial management and even cleanliness. Addictions do play a role as well, addictions developed before or after the vows were exchanged. How we grow matters. If you allow yourself to become an addict, you are basically opening the door to the devil that will wreck your home one day. This is why teenagers must read this book carefully. Those demons that plague homes were introduced or let in years before the home was thought...
