I.--ESTABLISHING THE VINEYARD. In Bulletin 30, issued July, 1893, a report was made on the varieties of grapes grown up to that date and methods of planting, pruning and training the vineyard were briefly discussed. The above bulletin has been out of print for some time and as the interest in grape-growing, at least for family use, appears to be on the increase, this second report is issued. It is in part a reprint of Bulletin 30 with new drawings and a revised discussion of the whole subject. No horticultural operation appears to be less understood in this State than grape-growing. Outside of the limited districts where the wine industry is of some importance, there appears to be a lack of critical information as to the principles involved in the culture, pruning and training of the vine in accordance with...
