Excerpt from Cumorahs Southern Messenger, Vol. 8: August 20, 1934 Without sitting, he said, Dr. Kellogg, I am Charles S. Keene, Vice President of the American Tobacco Company. I am sixty-seven years old. I have myocarditis. I have consulted many physicians. They have been able to give me no help and offer me no hope. I am informed that I have at most, not more than two or three years to live. This is a fine old world, Doctor, and I'd like to stay a little longer and enjoy it. I have come out here to Battle Creek to see if possibly you might not be able to do something to help me so that I may live a few more years. Can you help me? As he still stood, so anxious that he would not sit before hearing my answer to his question, I said, I suppose, of course, you smoke, Mr. Keene. Oh, yes, he replied, I have smoked ten or twelve strong cigars every day for forty years. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and...
