Valentine Stenographer. As in former years, Mr. Walden has continued as first assistant, and has been in charge of all work in the absence of the Entomologist. Mr. Walden has also done most of the photographic work of the department and has helped in inspecting nurseries and imported nursery stock and in carrying out investigations. Mr. Lowry has also assisted in inspection work and carried on a series of field experiments in controlling the cabbage maggot. Mr. Davis has been in charge of the field work of controlling the gypsy and brown-tail moths, and when not thus engaged, has assisted in the inspection work. Mr. Zappe, a graduate of the Connecticut Agricultural College, class of 1912, was employed temporarily during the month of April to inspect imported nursery stock. Since that time he has served as general assistant and has looked after the insectary and collection and breeding records. He also helped inspect the growing stock...
