SIMULATED CITIES

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | Cultural regeneration, branding and representation in urban development | Contemporary regeneration policy is often concerned with the re-branding of the city, for residents, tourists and investors. Recently in the UK, an increasing focus has been placed on the role of culture in regeneration, but this has mainly been framed in the context of social and economic renewal. The absence of cultural theory from regeneration debates mirrors its lack of engagement with the...
