XLIBRIS. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 378 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. When we think we learned something new, we are quite proud of it. But it wears off quickly for an unknown reason. So, what is wrong with what we do? When you start to think about the things you learn, and what the reason or purpose actually is, then you have to wonder sometimes: is it really something new we just learned? Because having in mind to learn something new can be quite exhausting at times. Maybe we have to start to think about this in a different way, and take a different approach in discovering new things. It is like a treasure hunt; imagine that we are all pirates looking for an adventure or treasures. Obviously, our life is about searching for something, but most of the time we don't even know what we are looking for. We do this quite instinctively, maybe we are preprogrammed in a way and we are not aware of it. But when you find out who we are, then everything seems to make sense. Our entire world (Universe) stands on myth and mythology (including our history), making us wonder if it is real. Let's look at life in a different way. Learn more about our history, maybe we can learn from old things our ancestors already knew, and then set that aside and try to find your own way. You most certainly will see things with different eyes. This is what our life is all about; it is a soul search where the experience we have along the way is the reward (treasure). In Australia the Aboriginal people are most likely a candidate for such an idea. They go on a regular Walkabout, which literally means looking for something. They...
