Handsome book . black with Silver gilt title impressed onto spine, in photographic jacket . Dr. Phillip J. Currie, Curator of Dinosaurs, Royal Tyrrell Museum of Palaeontology, Drumheller, Alberta , who wrote the introduction for this book, says " Over the years, David Spalding has supplemented his experience in dinosaur palaeontology by probing deep into the archives of many of the finest museums in the world for information on the collection of dinosaurs . I doubt there is anyone else in the world who knows as much about this subject . The stories Dave discovered - and sometimes participated in - are as fascinating as the dinosaurs themselves." . Around 1845 a landowner near New London, PEI , Prince Edward Island, was digging a new well in the red sandstone dirt , and stumbled upon a spectacular bone, still bearing 7 fierce-looking teeth . The specimen was named ' Bathygnathus ' . It has been widely regarded as the first find of a dinosaur in modern Canada - the first of many many remarkable discoveries which have come since then . While the Canadian dinosaurs were unearthed by Canadians, early fossils and bones were collected by American expeditions; for several years, the specimens from Canada were only to be seen in New York and Chicago, rather than in the country of their origin . But over the years, natural history institutions have flourished in Canada...
