Excerpt: .and more especially if they believe that the Word is of such a nature by virtue of its spiritual and celestial senses; for the light of heaven, in which the spiritual sense of the Word is, descends by influx into the natural light, in. which the literal sense of the Word is, and illuminates the intellectual principle of man, which is called his rational principle, and makes him see and acknowledge divine truths, both where they are manifest, and where they are concealed. This effect of the influx of light from heaven, takes place with some, even when they are not aware of it. 42. As the Word, in its inmost contents, by virtue of its celestial sense, is like a gentle burning flame, and in its middle contents, by virtue of its spiritual sense, is like an illustrating light; it follows hence, that...
