(Inclosure 8.)--Protest of the Nicaraguan Government. (Translation.) San Juan de Nicaragua, January 3, 1848. The Supreme Government of the Sovereign State of Nicaragua has done me the honour to entrust me with a commission to enter upon friendly communication with the British Agent who may present himself at this port, for the purpose of avoiding the violent occupation of it by the troops under his command, under the pretended right which is sought to be alleged in favour of a chief of the tribes of Mosquitos, who, under the title of King, without being recognized, is supported by the English force to which at present there is no equal force in this port to offer opposition, in support of the unquestionable right which the State of Nicaragua asserts over the coast of the Sea of the Antillas comprehended within the shore of her territories. But as you have openly refused everything, and have carried into effect your operations of usurpation without attending to my amicable invitations, in fulfilment of my duty, in the name of the Supreme State of Nicaragua, which I legally represent, and in execution of the powers conferred on me by the Government, I protest against the violation and outrage inflicted on the rights of the State, and I make its authors responsible, in the face of the civilized world, for the effusion of blood which such an act must cause, as well as for the loss, damage, and injury which public...
