Have More Fun, Live More Wholeheartedly, Encourage Each Other This how -to manual covers everything you need to know to successfully create your own Creativity Camaraderie Club. The clear, detailed structure was created by two psychotherapists with decades of experience knowing what works to help your group thrive and survive. A Creativity Camaraderie Club gives you permission to quench your thirst for creative expression and play. It feeds your hunger for meaningful community as you pursue old passions or explore new ones. You will expand your definition of creativity into many arenas of wholehearted living. You are a great candidate for a Creativity Camaraderie Club if you: want to have more fun.just because you feel like it! want to re-new your wholehearted engagement in life desire to open your heart to new community connections are one of the creatively wounded who thinks I m not creative, I have no imagination (just glance at Appendix B to see what non-artists have done as a result of monthly meetings!) are an already creative - a writer, painter, dancer, knitter, potter, entrepreneur, etc. who wants more structured accountability to keep creating WILL YOU GIVE YOURSELF THE GIFT OF ENLIVENING COMMUNITY? How could you resist bringing more joy and fun into your life? (Dale Schwarz, M. Ed., ATR, LMHC Center for Creative Consciousness) Just thinking each month about what I can do creatively has transformed my life. Most importantly, I met fabulous women! (Patricia O Connor, Life Coach, ChFc) I love the support, energy, and enthusiasm of women sharing their lives and cheering one another on at our monthly creativity meetings. I love witnessing...
