By de Kay, James Tertius

W.W. Norton & Company, 1995. Hard Cover. Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: Fine. First Edition. First edition. Signed by author without inscription on front endpaper. An exceptional copy. 1995 Hard Cover. 336 pp. 8vo. His Majesty's frigate Macedonian was launched in 1810, at the height of the Napoleonic wars, and burned in Manhattan in 1922. Captured by the Americans in 1812, the ship became a symbol of pride for the American navy, and served prominently in the liberation of Latin America, the war against the slave trade, the Irish potato famine, and the American Civil War. The story of the ship, told in this book, is full of battles, chases, and one near-mutiny, and also represents the story of gunboat diplomacy which defined international relations in the 19th century. Signed.

Reviews

This book is definitely not straightforward to get started on studying but extremely exciting to read. It is really simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
