Outskirts Press, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Some books inform. Some books entertain and make us smile and chuckle. Some books bring back wonderful memories. Sophie; The Rescue Dog Who Rescued Us will do all of these. And who better to write one s own life story than the person who lived it? That s right. This story had to be told, in large part, by Sophie, in her words, reflecting her thoughts. Of course we all want to tell that great story of what cute thing our dog did but only our dog can tell why they did it or what they were thinking. Since dogs don t have thumbs and neverhitthespacebarwhentyping , the co-author, John Troche, had to help just a little in telling and typing the story. Maybe your memory has many special moments you and your furry friend have shared. Sophie will make those come alive again. Maybe you re the parent or parents whose children are pleading for a dog with the classic, We ll take care of it, please, please. Sophie will show how you and your family will be rescued rather than the other way around. Each chapter s pages, written in a friendly narrative style, will have you feel like you re sitting in the same room or on a park bench watching the action take place right before you. Going to the shelter with us when we were just going to check out some dogs ? Yup, you re right there saying, You were hooked before you ever left home! Ever had a valedictorian in your family? Well, you ll share the pride as Sophie takes home the honor! And how does a dog feel about that Doggie Obedience School..
