BEG, STEAL AND BORROW: ARTISTS AGAINST ORIGINALITY (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Laurence King Publishing, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Art is theft, Picasso once proclaimed. The wily old Spaniard was being provocative - he often equated theft to what could more benignly be called influence. But increasingly much of the best and, even, most original art involves an act or two of unequivocal, overt theft - an act of simple copy and paste. This book looks at modern-day art theft from all angles: art-historical (tracing the lineage from Duchamp to Richard Prince), legal (looking at recent key copyright cases), cultural (drawing links to literary mash-ups and musical sampling), educational (Kenneth Goldsmith's famous Uncreativity classes) and, of course, in terms of current art practice. It will look at the practices of major artists working across a variety of media.
