Carcenet Press Ltd, United Kingdom, 2001. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. An Irish monk watching the Black Death edging towards him; a priest at Delphi lamenting the passing of an era; an Assyrian extispicist receiving more inspiration than is good for him - these are some of the voices in James Harpur s third collection. Drawing on legend, myth and sacred traditions, his poems explore universal forces - seen and unseen, personal and cosmic - shaping people s destinies, and the signs by which their patterns are revealed. These central issues coalesce in Dies Irae , a long poem in which a Dark Age churchman tries to reconcile his mission to save souls in a sinking world with his own sickness, both physical and spiritual.
