ROTHERHAM MURDERS: A HALF-CENTURY OF SERIOUS CRIME, 1900 - 1950 (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Pen Sword Books Ltd, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Rotherham Murders - True Crime BooksSet in a social backdrop of recovery from two world wars, Margaret Drinkall s Rotherham Murders concentrates on killings that took place in and around the town during the first fifty years of the twentieth century. Most of her cases have not been written about in recent years, but are now investigated and told by a modern crime historian. Read about the brutal death of a policeman, a sensational body in a trunk murder which resulted in Scotland Yard detectives coming to Rotherham and the very first wireless appeal for helping catching the culprit. Other sad and foul deeds include mothers killing their own children, an unusual transvestite case, an early motoring crime and a gamekeeper s grim revenge. Not for the faint-hearted, these cases will both shock and astonish in equal measure, true stories set within one of South Yorkshire s most important industrial towns.
