Religious Leadership in National Political Conflict: Bishop Abel Tendekai Muzorewa and the National Struggle Against Colonial Rule in Zimbabwe

By Lloyd Tichaenda Nyarota, Wood White

Wipf Stock Publishers, United Kingdom, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Synopsis: It is one thing for a religious leader to confront and challenge political leaders; it is altogether another thing when such a leader becomes a partisan political leader. This is what happened in the case of Bishop Abel Tendekayi, a bishop of the United Methodist Church. For such a religious leader to attempt to traverse both worlds political and religious are in some ways uncharted waters; in other ways, they are treacherous waters. The pages which follow in this lucid and detailed volume is an effort to look back on the challenge and complexity of moving from colonialism to independence, to the making of a new independent nation on the Continent of Africa. What happens when the prophetic voice expected of and from the Church becomes the identified political entity? How does it challenge itself, or how is it distinguished from the political power it seeks to hold accountable on behalf of all the people? These are several of the questions Nyarota tackles through the examination of the impact of the struggle for liberation upon...
