Excerpt: . other circumstances, do not require a similar change, in fact, are opposed to-such a change,) have the Superior Court held in all the districts in contested cases, by three judges. The Commission thinks so, and here are the reasons upon which it founds its opinion. There will be seven judges in Montreal and four in Quebec. With this number of judges, it seems easy to have at Montreal a court of three judges, sitting permanently, or even of two sections of the court sitting at the same time, as the Superior Court. At Quebec, one section of the court would be sufficient for contested cases; this would always leave a seventh judge at Montreal, and a fourth at Quebec, for cases by default, incidents of procedure, summary matters and proceedings in chambers. For the other districts, namely, the districts of Rimouski, Kamouraska,...
