

Free Spirits, 2002 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Coahoma Community College

Forgotten Books, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Free Spirits, 2002 Chris, a sophomore residential carpentry major, is the son of Ms. Willie Mae Townsend of Shelby, Mississippi. He has 4 brothers and 4 sisters. He is a proud 1999 graduate of Broad Street High School in Shelby. Chris enjoys bowling, drawing, playing musical instruments, and working with his hands. Chris s love for art began at an early age. He says he received inspiration from his older brother. While at Coahoma, Chis, participates in various extra-curricular activities, including the ccc s marching band, cheering with the Coahoma co-ed cheerleading/dance squad. He also serves as a state officer for skillsusa-vica during the 2001-2002 school year and serves as the president for the local chapter at CCC. Upon departing from Coahoma, Chris plans to attend Mississippi State University in Starksville, Mississippi, and major in computer programming with a minor in graphic design. His future goal is to become a computer technician and teach music. His philosophy of life is as follows. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Find more at...

READ ONLINE
[8.79 MB]

Reviews

Certainly, this is actually the very best job by any author. It really is rally exciting through studying time. You may like how the blogger write this pdf.
-- Rudolph Jones MD

Completely essential go through ebook. I was able to comprehended almost everything using this created e pdf. You will not sense monotony at anytime of your time (that's what catalogs are for relating to if you request me).
-- Timmothy Schulist