Charles Sumner, on the Bill for the Admission of Kansas as a Free State, in the United States Senate, June 4, 1860*. Mr. President: Undertaking now, after a silence of more than four years, to address the Senate on this important subject, I should suppress the emotions natural to such an occasion, if I did not declare on the thresh old my gratitude to that Supreme Being, through whose benign care I am enabled, after much suffering and many changes, once again to resume my duties here, and to speak for the cause which is so near my heart. To the honored Commonwealth whose representative I am, and also to my immediate associates in this body, with whom I enjoy the fellowship which is found in thinking alike concerning the Republic, I owe thanks which I seize this mo ment to express for the indulgence shown me throughout the protracted seclusion enjoined by medical skill; and I trust that it will not be thought unbecoming in me to put on rec ord here, as an apology for leaving my seat so long vacant, without making way, by resigna tion, for a successor, that I acted under the illusion of an invalid, Whose hopes for restore tion to his natural health constantly triumphed over his disappointments.
