

From Grief to Glory

By Annette Toles Young

Xulon Press, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Never under estimate what a carefully selected card and verses of scripture can do for a grieving heart. The author s sister-in-law, who had lost her own husband one year before her brother s passing, sent a package with a card, reading material on grieving, and very specific scripture verses on the first anniversary of the author s husband s death. That package s verses of scripture became the mainstay of words, which the author began reading daily. The order of the verses began by stating that we are all appointed a time to die. They ended by pointing to the hope we have through Jesus Christ in the resurrection. They were timely, much needed reminders of God s unfailing love. These daily readings rekindled the author s faith and spirit. This book, written to share the author s unique journey from grief to healing through poetry, is meant to fulfill a similar mission. When her husband died on October 25, 1996, it was less than two months away from their 26th. Wedding anniversary. Annette Toles Young...
