Gyan Books Pvt. Ltd., New Delhi, India, 2000. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. A valuable addition to the stacks, containing Books on I Police, it is one of the few good ones on the human aspect of the police. It's a must for all scholars, students and the policemen alike, or it deals with all the aspects. Police: The Human Face is a collection of articles penned over a period of a decade or so with the sole Purpose of initiating steps to make face of the humane Law and order maintenance machinery more humane and responsive to the aspirations of people of independent India. It may really be very shocking to read about Indian Police as if they are Aliens and devoid of the Milk of Human kindness. The Author has made efforts to analyse the working conditions of the Police Force and also to suggest better Ways of policing. The analysis of Police sub-culture based on his personal experience should definitely go a long way to infuse professionalism in police functionaries, officers and jawans alike. Printed Pages: 327.
