

Fatal Forgeries (Paperback)

By Ritter Ames

Henery Press, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This author is sheer perfection when it comes to using descriptions and locations that are richly done and offer sharp details throughout the entirety of the story. - Suspense Magazine When art recovery expert Laurel Beacham s personal and professional worlds collide, she learns no good theft goes unpunished. Incomplete intel and a missing source compel her to make a huge mistake, and she s left with a divided team. Every retrieved masterpiece has a price--and the cost of forgeries can be deadly. This time Laurel could lose not only her best lead, but also her most trusted ally. The stakes have never been higher, forcing her and her partner, Jack, to go on the run, crisscrossing Europe to evade the criminals. Except instead of two masterminds working against them, they realize there might be three. With no time to lose, Laurel and her team must pool their resources and work to set aside their differences before they become the next fatalities. I highly recommend the entire series. - King s River Life Magazine Related subjects include: women sleuths, cozy mysteries, amateur sleuth...
