It was a difficult, long period fighting off. Mediocre Christianity did not work. A moment in life came when all the secret life of sin came to the open. Setting down to a true Christian life, personal repentance, discipleship, and wholesome commitment to the Word of God brought regeneration. In a span of three years, there was total change. The impact of the change was evident and wholesome in all spheres of life including the spiritual realm, family and community life, work and service life, value system and relationships, stewardship and leadership. The writer calls readers to enter into the freedom that comes with accepting Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and living true to the Word of God as the bedrock of an ultimate transformation.
