

The Owl of Willow Woods (Paperback)

By Don Tripp

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . THE OWL OF WILLOW WOODS is a book of love and beauty, channeled from God and Angels of the Godhead over a period of thirty years. Set in story form, it depicts a young wind chime maker who comes upon an owl in a willow forest. The Owl, it turns out, is God. During their two weeks together, the boy poses some of the most common yet difficult questions people today, religious or not, are likely to ask. With the answers It gives, The Owl offers insight into Its own nature, mindset and logic, providing readers with a sense of who and what God really is. While discussing a variety of widely-ranging topics and concerns, It leaves us with such an impression of Itself --warm and personable--as never before. .It unveils mankind's age old mysteries, the realm that lies waiting for us beyond this earth, and the purpose and journey of the soul. .It reveals an astonishing fact regarding the Prophets from whom our main religions originated. Namely, Buddha, Mohammed, Jesus, Confucius and Lao-tzu were from a SINGLE SOUL, which has...
