Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Journal of Travels in England, Holland and Scotland, and of Two Passages Over the Atlantic, 1820, Vol. 2 July 6. - I do not mean often to trouble you with my peculiar employments, but a circumstance of some interest has grown out of them, which I shall now take the liberty of mentioning. I pass three or four hours, every morning, in professional pursuits, with able masters, and a part of that time I employ with Mr. Accum, one of the best practical chemists in this country; my object is to repeat in his laboratory, and with his assistance, such chemical operations as are more particularly difficult and critical. Of late, I have found myself growing very unwell, and with a train of symptoms which affected me in a manner quite novel: an insupportable languor has, for several days, pervaded my limbs, and rendered every exertion painful; while an extremely disordered stomach has deprived me equally of the power and the disposition to receive any support from food.
