

An Arab Melancholia

By Abdellah Taia, Frank Stock

Autonomedia. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, An Arab Melancholia, Abdellah Taia, Frank Stock, I had to rediscover who I was. And that's why I left the apartment. And there I was, right in the heart of the Arab world, a world that never tired of making the same mistakes over and over. I had no more leniency when it came to the Arab world. None for the Arabs and none for myself. I suddenly saw things with merciless lucidity.-- An Arab Melancholia Sal, near Rabat. The mid 1980s. A lower-class teenager is running until he's out of breath. He's running after his dream, his dream to become a movie director. He's running after the Egyptian movie star, Souad Hosni, who's out there somewhere, miles away from this neighborhood--which is a place the teenager both loves and hates, the home at which he is not at home, an environment that will only allow him his identity through the cultural lens of shame and silence. Running is the only way he can stand up to the violence that is his Morocco. Irresistibly charming, angry, and wry, this autobiographical novel traces the emergence of Abdellah Taa's identity as an openly gay Arab man living between...

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
