Sterrett Emerson Groves is a young lawyer at a reputable Washington D.C. law firm. With a less than desirable work ethic, he relies on boldness, improvisation and sometimes drink to make it through his day successfully. His boss, Vincent Jorrigo bets the law associate s swagger will be of use to him. It proves a costly gamble as Jorrigo wrestles with his own perilous demons. Dinah Solatoff, with her cool, Western style, turns Sterrett s head, yet misunderstands the boy s way of looking at things. Tired of her life as a legal secretary, she snubs him for an unlikely romance with a national politician, while Sterrett seeks out beautiful and ambitious attorney Anne Marie Smith for answers. In the background, looms a comical waste management project that means big bucks for all involved. The Washington Heights is a story of restless youth and a decision to be made, to pursue love or settle for riches. It s also a satire of the micro-culture in the U.S. capital where contrasting agendas, lobbying and legal shenanigans are the specials of the day.
