LIVING WITH AUTISTIC SPECTRUM DISORDERS: GUIDANCE FOR PARENTS, CARERS AND SIBLINGS (PAPERBACK)

SAGE Publications Inc, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The layout and presentation of the material are very user friendly and the book is, therefore, easy to read. Those with less direct experience of living or working with children who are autistic, including teachers and learning support assistants, who require some help in appreciating the complex range of behaviours and responses such children present, will find this little book illuminating - Support for Learning This is a really practical tool. the structure of the book is clear and uncomplicated for the reader to access. This book is based on a wealth of experience of working closely both with individuals with Autism and their families. It will be a revelation to professionals interested in this area and a comfort to carers who live the experience. Most importantly, it reminds us of the barriers to positive parent/professional partnership and challenges us to build supportive bridges to effective intervention for the individual with Autism. Autism NI (PAPA) was created out of such a dynamic approach and therefore welcomes this significant commentary on this critical issue. By giving a concise account of what life may be like following the diagnosis of autistic spectrum disorders (ASDs) in the family, this book examines service provision at different stages, and provides information for parents, carers and practitioners - Arlene Cassidy, Chief Executive, Autism NI Parents want support and advice during and after a diagnosis of ASDs, and professionals want to be able to give the right answers. This book will meet the needs of both. Issues dealt with include: how to help the family how to help brothers and sisters preparing children with ASDs for the world outside keeping expectations high how to work together with schools and other agencies finding...
