September 20, 1912 The English Haverhill is a quaint old parish and market town, picturesquely situated, with its one long street, in a valley on a branch line of the Great Eastern railway, with two manufacturing industries, one for cotton, the other for silk fabrics, and with a population of about 4,500. The bustling, prosperous, manufacturing city on the Merrimac, with its 40,000 population, was known as Old Haverhill within the memory of many here today, and our Haverhill, its namesake, was and still is new in comparison with that municipality, which, more than twenty years ago, celebrated its two hundred and fiftieth anniversary. Our Haverhill, however, with its one hundred and fifty years of life, takes on the dignity of age when compared with the three other Haverhills on the world s map - one in Lawrence County, Ohio, another in Marshall County, Iowa, and still another in Butler County, Kansas, each a small farming township, and each with...
