Excerpt: . . . 11 deterrence strategy and defense posture. As the combatant com-mand responsible for executing strategic deterrence operations, planning for nuclear operations, and advocating for nuclear capa-bilities, at STRATCOM we are keenly aware of how force posture and readiness changes can affect deterrence, assurance, and overall strategic stability. The New START treaty agreement, in my view, retains the military flexibility necessary to ensure each of these for the period of the treaty. In support of the New START treaty negotiation effort, STRATCOM analyzed the required nuclear weapons and delivery vehicle force structure and posture to meet current guidance, and provided options for considerations by DOD. This rigorous ap-proach, rooted in both deterrence strategy and assessment of poten-tial adversary capabilities, supports both the agreed-upon reduc-tions in the New START treaty and recommendations in the NPR. In closing, every day STRATCOM remains focused on providing the President, and future presidents, with the options and flexi-bility needed for...
